

Editors' Picks: 11 Things Not to Miss in New York's Art World This Week

A new show by Wardell Milan and a talk by Marc Quinn are on our agenda.

artnet News, April 15, 2019

8. Peter Linde Busk: The Generous Gambler

For his second exhibition with the gallery, Danish artist Peter Linde Busk has created a carnivalesque world of kings, queens, jesters, and knights. Incorporating leftover wood, cardboard, glass, and paper, these vividly hued mosaic and collage works recall the opulence of Byzantine chapels, the kaleidoscopic regalia of native Latin American traditions, and the intricate intensity of Art Brut. Their material excess can seem alternately exuberant and foreboding, and in total, devising a mesmerizing limbo between comedy and tragedy, imagination and reality.

Location: Derek Eller Gallery, 300 Broome Street

Price: Free

Time: Opening reception, 6 p.m.–8 p.m.; Wednesday–Sunday, 11 a.m.–6 p.m.

— Katie White